LET'S GET TO KNOW COWGIRL STYLES

Hello, my name is Tyler Faris. I have been in love with arts and crafts for as long as I can remember. I was born in the small town of Midland, TX. Growing up in Texas allowed me to enjoy nature, the country lifestyle, and animals. In my early years, I spent time raising different animals in FFA, County fairs, and volunteering. My adult years became focused on my children and career. But I still found time to volunteer with the Montgomery County Fair Association. I have been a Registered Respiratory Therapist for almost 14 yrs. During my career, I completed my Bachelor of Science, my Adult Critical Care Specialty (ACCS), and my Neonatal Pediatric Specialty (NPS). I relocated to Colorado in 2015 and I am working full-time at Memorial Central Hospital in Colorado Springs.

My life became complete when I met my husband, Canton Faris. We began dating in 2018 and married in April 2020. Together we have 4 amazing children, 3 boys, and 1 girl. The oldest is getting married at the end of October, our second has become a sailor in the US Navy, our third recently graduated choosing to join the workforce and our fourth (the only girl) will graduate a year early from high school with plans to join the US Army. Knowing that soon we will have an empty nest, Canton and I are looking to relocate to Walsenburg, CO. His family has been in Huerfano county for many decades and we are ready to "come home". We look forward to spending time exploring on our quads, becoming part of a community, and living a slower-paced life.

Creating crafts and art has always been a relaxing, stress relief for me. I enjoy painting, drawing, photography, crocheting (still learning), and making different crafts and my new passion is wood burning. After visiting the Walsenburg Mercantile I became enthralled. I wanted to join this craft family. My daughter and I created the name and logo for our new venture. I look forward to spending time creating new products and becoming more involved in the community. Thank you for taking the time to get to know a little about me.
