

LET'S GET TO KNOW CENTENNIAL - JEWELRY & FASHION ACCESSORIES

Centennial is a local independent wholesaler that has been serving the Colorado Region since 1981. They have earned their reputation for variety, quality, pricing, and most importantly integrity. Being independently owned and operated means personalized stocking and servicing on a regular basis with no salesman's commission inflating the price. Annually, we buy direct from about 30 of the 300 different manufacturers that we have access to internationally, and therefore offer a broad selection and price range for our customers to select from.

We offer a wide range of fashion jewelry that include necklaces and matching earrings in rhinestones, beads, and assortments of metal and plastic. Our religious items, feature crosses both for males and females and a wide variety of colorful rosaries. We also offer Bronco merchandise for all our Colorado Sports Fans! We also stand behind our products in the sense that if something should be defective, you make your customer happy according to store policy and we will make it right for you so you never suffer a loss.

Our company has served Colorado for many years with many repeat customers and satisfied businesses offering our products. We look forward to a long and happy relationship with you and thank you for the opportunity to serve you!
